

Graduate Grade Requirements

Academic requirements:

Applicants should provide evidence that they have achieved a qualification (or a combination of qualifications) that meets the following criteria:

- In a fire-related subject area
- At Level 3 or above
- Requiring at least 370 hours of learning time (at least 37 credits)

Examples of qualifications that meet the criteria include:

- IFE Level 3 Diploma in Fire Science and Fire Safety

A listing of approved qualifications by country can be found by referring to the IFE Approved Qualifications Listing

OR

Successful completion (including passing associated assessments) of an IFE Recognised Educational Programme for GFireE

OR

Provision of a Technical Report that meets the standards set out of in the IFE guidance

Other requirements:

At least 3 years of experience of working in a fire-related role (at least 4 years for those applying via the Technical Report Route)

PLUS

Evidence of completion of at least 25 hours of relevant Continuing Professional Development (CPD) in the previous 12 months

CPD guidance can be found here

Please note that the originality of your application may be subject to further scrutiny via appropriate technology and CPD may be challenged.